REPORT OF THE COUNCIL OF CHAIRMEN ON THE WORK OF THE JURIES.

THE work of the several Juries having been brought to a termination, it becomes the duty of the Council of Chairmen to explain the manner in which the Juries were constituted, and the result of their labours.

The Juries consisted of English and Foreign members in varying proportions. The English Jurors were in the first place nominated by exhibitors, and these nominations having been carefully considered, Her Majesty's Commissioners invariably appointed such persons as appeared to be named by the general agreement of a trade or district. In cases where the nominations were not made on a common understanding, the Royal Commissioners were guided in their choice by the number of votes given to particular individuals, and, in some instances, by the desire expressed by exhibitors that the Commissioners should themselves select persons possessing the necessary qualifications.

The British Colonies were represented by Jurors recommended by the several Colonial Commissioners.

Foreign nations taking part in the Exhibition had a right to nominate one Juror for every class in which they were represented by 20 exhibitors, and for every section of a class in which they had 15 exhibitors. As an alternative, each nation had a certain number of Jurors allotted to it, in proportion to the space which it occupied in the building, and several countries accepted this alternative. Her Majesty's Commissioners, without fixing any arbitrary proportion between Foreign and English Jurors, appointed as many of the latter to each Jury as the experience of past Exhibitions showed to be necessary for its efficiency.

The Juries were 65 in number, grouped so as to form 36 classes or Head Juries, corresponding to the 36 industrial classes under which the objects are arranged in the Exhibition. Each of these Head Juries, when subdivided into sections, acted as a united body for the confirmation of awards. Before, however, these awards were considered final, they were brought before and received the sanction of a Council, consisting of the Chairmen of the 36 Head Juries. The Chairmen, forming the Council which regulated the affairs of the Juries, were nominated by Her Majesty's Commissioners from the Jurors of different nations, a number being allotted to each country relatively to the space assigned to it in the building. The Council was presided over by a Chairman appointed by Her Majesty's Commissioners.

Her Majesty's Commissioners decided that only one description of Medal should be awarded by the Juries. This decision considerably facilitated their labours, as it became necessary only to reward excellence wherever it was found, without reference to competition between exhibitors. As the work of the Juries advanced, it was ascertained that many articles possessed excellence of a kind which deserved a special mention, without, however, entitling them to a Medal; and although it involved some departure from the principle that had been originally laid down, yet the Council of Chairmen acceded to the wish of the Juries, and permitted such cases to be classed and published under the title of "Honourable Mentions."

The Jurors and their associates engaged in examining the objects of the Exhibition amounted to 612 persons, of whom 287 were Foreigners, and 325 English. They are men of high social, scientific, and industrial position, drawn from nearly every civilized country in the world. Their labours have occupied two months, and have been of the most arduous description, as they had to examine the objects displayed by at least 25,000 exhibitors. It can scarcely be expected that none of the articles exhibited have escaped their attention. In a few instances the delay of arrival or of arrangement has rendered it impossible for the Juries to examine every article now within the building; while, in other cases, errors in classification have rendered it doubtful to which of the Juries the duty of examining some particular object should fall. Every effort, however, has been made to conquer these obstacles, and the omissions, if any, must be very few in number, and are not owing to the want of attention of the Juries or of the officers engaged in facilitating their work.

The number of Medals voted by the Juries amount to nearly 7,000, and the Honourable Mentions to about 5,300. The proportion of awards to exhibitors is greater than in the International Exhibition of 1851, but less than in that of 1855.

Notwithstanding the varied nationalities represented in the Juries, it is gratifying to record that the utmost harmony has prevailed during the whole time that the Jurors have been associated in their labours. The mutual dependence and intimate alliance between the industries of the world have been illustrated by the zealous and impartial efforts of the Jurors of different nations to recognise and reward the merit displayed in the exhibitions of their industrial competitors.

We are glad to observe that the state of industry, as shown in the International Exhibition, gives evidence of a singularly active and healthy progress throughout the civilized world; for while we find every nation searching for new raw materials or utilizing products hitherto considered as waste, we are struck especially with the vast improvement in the machinery employed to adapt them to industrial purposes, as well as with the applications of science, and with the great and successful attention which is now given to all the arts necessary to gratify our taste and sense of beauty.

We cannot conclude this report without expressing our obligations to Dr. Lyon Playfair, the Special Commissioner for Juries, for the constant and intelligent assistance which he has rendered to us throughout our labours, as well as to the Deputy Commissioners and Secretary, who have acted under his direction, and have afforded efficient aid to the several Juries during their inquiries.

TAUNTON,
President of the Council.

DECISIONS REGARDING JURIES.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

1. Objects exhibited in the Industrial Department of the Exhibition have been divided into Thirty-six Head Classes, which, for the convenience of the Juries, have in several cases been sub-divided into Sections. The Classes, with their sections, amount to Sixty-five in number.

2. Each Class, when not sub-divided, and each Section of a divided Class, will have a separate Jury, but the Sectional Juries of a Class will be associated as one united Jury in the election of a Deputy Chairman and in the confirmation of awards. (Vide §§ 7 and 8.)

3. The following is the list of Classes and Sections for which Juries are appointed:—

- | | |
|-------|---|
| Class | 1. Mining, Quarrying, Metallurgy, and Mineral Products. |
| „ | 2. Chemical Substances and Products, and Pharmaceutical Processes. |
| | Section a. Chemical Products. |
| | „ b. Medical and Pharmaceutical Products and Processes. |
| „ | 3. Substances used for Food. |

 - „ b. Glass for household use and fancy purposes.
- „ 35. Pottery.
- „ 36. Dressing Cases, Despatch Boxes, and Travelling Cases.

4. The Articles in the Building are arranged as much as possible in the 65 Classes and Sections, so as to be coincident with the field of action of each Jury, and to facilitate its labours.

5. If Exhibitors accept the office of Jurors, or Associate Jurors or Experts, they cease to be competitors for prizes in the Class to which they are appointed, and these cannot be awarded either to them individually, or to the firms in which they may be partners.

6. Juries may take evidence when a majority of the Jury deem it advisable, and name the persons to be consulted as Experts; Jurors of another Class may also be called in aid by a Jury, when a knowledge involved in that Class is required. The Juries, should they desire to secure such aid permanently, may appoint the persons so called in to be "Associate Jurors," but they will not possess a vote. Various Nations having returned the names of persons fitted to act as Supplementary Jurors or Deputies to the several Classes, lists of these will be published with the view of enabling Juries to obtain their aid, should the Juries so desire.

7. The awards made by the Sectional Juries must be submitted to, and be confirmed by, the Head Jury of the class, which consists of all the Sectional Juries united.

8. Before a Jury can finally make their awards they must be submitted to a Council, consisting of the Chairmen of the Juries, in order to secure uniformity of action, and a compliance with the regulations originally laid down by that body.

9. The awards of a Jury, when reported by the Council of Chairmen as being made in conformity to the rules are final.

10. The Juries will commence their duties on Wednesday the 7th of May, at 10 o'clock, and will be aided in the general transaction of their business by Dr. Lyon Playfair, C.B., who has been appointed Special Commissioner in charge of the Department of Juries. The Special Commissioner, either personally or by deputy, may be present at their deliberations, but he will not have a vote, or interfere in the adjudication of awards.

CONSTITUTION OF JURIES.

11. The Juries consist of the nominees of the Foreign Commissions, with the addition of a certain number of British and Colonial Jurors.

12. Each of the 36 Head Juries will be presided over by a Chairman to be nominated by Her Majesty's Commissioners, and he will be aided by a Deputy Chairman to be elected at the first meeting of the Jury.

13. The Sectional Juries will elect Presidents to take the chair at their meetings ; but these Sectional Presidents will not have a seat in the Council of Chairmen.

14. Juries will appoint one of their own body as a reporter or secretary to record the results of their deliberations.

15. Any Foreign Nation which may not have a representative on a Jury may nominate one of the actual Jurors as a person through whom they can convey official information in regard to the exhibits and interests of that Nation.

16. In the event of any nominee of Foreign Commissions being obliged to leave the country before the completion of the work of the Juries, a Deputy Juror may be substituted in his place. Such Deputies, when announced as likely to be required, may be elected as Associates, if desired by the Juries.

COUNCIL OF CHAIRMEN.

17. The Chairmen of the Thirty-six Head Juries will be associated as a body, to be called the "Council of Chairmen," and will be presided over by the Right Honourable Lord Taunton, appointed by Her Majesty's Commissioners the President of the Council.

18. In the absence of a Chairman, the Deputy Chairman of the Jury will take his seat at the Council.

19. The Council of Chairmen will be constituted of British subjects and of at least an equal number of Foreigners.

20. The Council of Chairmen will have to determine the general mode of action of the Juries, and to define the general principles to which it will be advisable to conform in making the awards in the several departments of the Exhibition. It is the wish of Her Majesty's Commissioners that Medals should be awarded to articles possessing decided superiority, of whatever nature that superiority may be, and not with reference to a merely individual competition.

21. The Council of Chairmen must see that the awards of the several Juries are in accordance with the Rules laid down, before they are considered final.

22. It will be desirable that the Council of Chairmen should hold a Meeting before the assembling of the Juries ; and this Meeting will be held on Saturday the 3rd of May, at 12 o'clock at noon.

23. In order to represent the wishes of Her Majesty's Commissioners, and to explain the rules, the Special Commissioner will attend the Meetings of the Council, and aid it in the transaction of business ; but he will not possess a vote, or act as a Member of the Council.

MEETING OF JURIES.

24. The Jurors, on being appointed, will receive immediate notice of appointment, and their names will be published.

25. The Juries will meet for the transaction of business on Wednesday the 7th of May. The place, day, and hour of each Meeting of the Juries will be fixed by the Chairman, or in his absence by the Vice-Chairman. The meetings of the Sectional Juries will in like manner be determined by the President of these Sectional Juries, to be elected at their first meeting. Notice of the days and hours of meeting will be given at the Office of the Secretary of Juries, from whence summonses will be issued. The days of meetings will also be posted in the place where the Jury usually meet, and near the Secretary's Office.

26. In the event of an equality of votes at any meeting of a Jury or Sectional Jury, the Chairman for the time being shall have a casting vote.

27. Although it will be impossible to set apart special days in which the Juries alone can examine the Articles exhibited, to the exclusion of the public, arrangements will be made to carry on these examinations with as little inconvenience as possible.

28. Jurors, immediately on their arrival in London, will report themselves to J. F. Iselin, Esq., M.A., the Secretary of Juries, at the Jury Office, 13, Cromwell Road, South Kensington, W., where they will obtain their Juror's Ticket, which entitles them to admission, and receive all necessary information.

INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE COUNCIL OF CHAIRMEN TO THE JURIES.

THE Council of Chairmen have met in compliance with the direction to that effect, contained in the Decisions of Her Majesty's Commissioners, and have agreed to the following instructions as a guide to the Juries, first alluding to those points upon which the decisions of the Commissioners are clear and precise.

1. Working of Juries.—In regard to the working of Juries, the Council of Chairmen think it advisable to leave much to the discretion and experience of the Jury, but they have to remind the Juries that all awards must be returned to and transmitted by the Council to Her Majesty's Commissioners before the 15th of June.

2. Deputy Chairman.—The head Juries will at their first meeting elect a Deputy Chairman, who will assist the Chairman, and fill his place in the Jury or the Council in his absence. The Council express their opinion that in every case where the Chairman is a subject of this kingdom, the Deputy Chairman should be chosen from the foreign Jurors.

3. Chairman of Sectional Juries.—Each Sectional Jury will, at its first meeting, elect a Chairman to preside at its meetings.

4. Reporter or Secretary.—Any Jury may appoint a Secretary to record the results of their deliberations.

5. Evidence and Associates.—When the Jury wish to call in the aid of a person of technical knowledge to aid their judgment, they may do so in conformity with the 6th article of the General Decisions. Jurors of another class or section may be associated with a Jury, when the majority of the Jury decide to call upon them for aid; in both cases, however, the persons so called in do not possess votes in the Jury.

6. Juries to carry on their investigations without delay.—As Her Majesty's Commissioners have decided that all the awards must be made before the 15th of June, it is necessary that no delay should take place in prosecuting the work of the Juries.

7. Mode of making the Awards.—When a Jury of a class which is not subdivided into sections has decided upon their awards, these are to be transmitted to the Council of Chairmen, according to the 21st article of the Decisions of Her Majesty's Commissioners.

8. Awards of Sectional Juries.—When a Sectional Jury has decided upon their awards, these are to be submitted to a general meeting of all the sections of the class united, according to the 7th article of the General Decisions.

9. Statement of the Grounds of Award.—The Juries must attach to each award a brief statement of the grounds on which it is made.

10. Awards become final when confirmed by the Council of Chairmen.—The awards will become final as soon as the Council of Chairmen have decided that they are in conformity with the General Decisions of Her Majesty's Commissioners and with the rules now laid down by the Council, or which may hereafter be enacted by the Council.

11. Secrecy.—All the considerations, discussions, and decisions of each Jury, and of the Council of Chairmen, are to be considered as strictly confidential, and are on no account to be divulged until Her Majesty's Commissioners sanction the publication of the awards.

12. Medals to be awarded without reference to Nationality.—The medals will be awarded for excellence only, without reference to countries, the Exhibition, so far as regards the Juries, being considered as a whole, and not as consisting of a mere juxtaposition of separate displays by different nations.

13. Number of Medals.—The number of medals required by each class cannot be determined with precision before the examination of the objects. Guided by the experience of former Exhibitions, Her Majesty's Commissioners have authorized the Special Commissioner to place a definite number of medals at the disposal of each

Jury, but have reserved the right of the Council of Chairmen to increase this number, if individual Juries give reasons which are considered satisfactory by the Council.

14. All Medals of one kind.—There are no gradations of medals, all being the same. The medals are to be awarded for merit, without any distinction of degree, and without reference to competition between producers. It is not the best manufacturer, in any particular branch of industry, who should alone be rewarded by a medal, but all producers who shall show, by their exhibits, that their products are excellent in their kind. No exhibitor, however, can receive more than one medal from one Jury.

15. General Instructions for the giving of Medals.—The Council of Chairmen do not deem it advisable to issue formal and positive instructions as to the conditions under which medals should be awarded, but think it expedient to offer the following suggestions to the Juries, trusting in their ability to make rules for their separate guidance.

A.—RAW MATERIALS, INCLUDING CLASSES I. to IV.

Medals are to be awarded for novelty in the mode of obtaining, applying, and adapting raw materials and produce ; for skill and excellence in known methods of obtaining, applying, or adapting them ; for excellence in the quality obtained, combined with utility ; for the value of the instructiveness of any series exhibited.

B.—MACHINERY, INCLUDING CLASSES V. to XVII.

1. The Juries of Classes V., VII., and VIII., Railway, Manufacturing, and General Machinery, will be careful in admitting claims of novelty of invention without sufficient scrutiny. They will reward machinery in which is found fitness for the object sought to be obtained, economy in first cost, durability, economy in maintenance, and excellence of workmanship. In the case of Class VII., Manufacturing Machinery, the Juries will also consider the economy in the production, and perfection in the articles manufactured ; the saving in time and the quantity produced.

2. The Jury for Carriages (Class VI.) will, in respect to those of luxury, reward the successful application of any new material with elegance of design and excellence of workmanship, strength, lightness, and reasonable cheapness. As regards carriages of transport and others for the public service, the Jury will consider favourably lightness, sufficient solidity for safety, durability, and cheapness.

3. The Jury for Agricultural and Horticultural Implements (Class IX.) are recommended to consult the conditions under which the leading Agricultural Societies make their awards in their periodical Exhibitions.

4. The Juries for Class X., Civil Engineering, Architectural and Building Contrivances, will reward science and skill in design to obtain the object sought with the greatest economy ; fitness in the application of materials ; success in the work in which the model or drawing is exhibited ; perfection of workmanship in the model or drawing exhibited.

5. The Juries for Classes XI. and XII., Military Engineering, &c., and Naval Architecture, will reward merits of combination in the models or drawings relating to military engineering ; advantages obtained by experiments in carrying out the means proposed, either by models or drawings ; improvements in arms, apparatus, or any articles belonging to military or naval service, or architecture, to rigging or other branches of seamanship, to accoutrements or equipments of troops ; their fitness, efficacy, and economy of production.

6. The Jury for Class XIII., Philosophical Instruments, will reward novelty of inventions, or novelty in the whole or part of the instruments exhibited, ingenuity of construction, new application of old principles, application of new principles, improvements in beauty of form, increased durability, extended applications, excellence and precision in workmanship, economy of production.

7. The Jury for Class XIV., Photography and Photographic Apparatus, will reward the instruments of photography on the same considerations as are attached to the class of philosophical instruments. In regard to photographic impressions, they will reward novelties in the mode of production, durability, excellence in the results obtained, and artistic merit. With reference to photographic materials novelty or new applications, increased sensitiveness, or powers of retention, and facilities of operating should be favourably considered.

8. The Jury for Class XV., Horological Instruments, will, in their awards, take into account ascertained or probable accuracy and certainty of performance, whether in time-keeping, discharging of striking parts, or registering; stability, strength, and durability, simplicity and economy of construction, goodness of execution. High finish is to be considered subordinate to precision and accuracy of construction.

9. The Jury of Class XVI., Musical Instruments, will consider novelty of invention, novel application of old inventions, improvement of mechanical action, tone, perfection of workmanship, beauty of design, combined with general excellence, increased facility of action, cheapness combined with durability.

10. The Jury for Class XVII., Surgical Instruments, will reward the Exhibitors of instruments which possess novelty of a useful character, giving evidence of originality and inventive power, ingenuity in the application, extension or modification of principles already known, or for new combinations; mechanical skill, including cheapness, finish, and other qualities of mechanical execution.

C.—TEXTILE, FELTED, AND LAID MANUFACTURES.

The Juries for Textile Manufactures, and also those of Fur, Hair, Feathers, and Leather, Paper, &c., from XVIII. to XXX., will make, as the groundwork of their awards, increased usefulness, such as permanency in dyes, improved forms and arrangements in articles of utility, &c., superior quality or superior skill in workmanship; new use of known materials; use of new materials; new combinations of materials; beauty of design in form or colour, or both, with reference to utility; cheapness, relating to excellence of production. The Educational Works and Apparatus in Class XXIX. will be judged of by their fitness for their purpose; for their illustrative character and economy of production.

D.—METALLIC, VITREOUS, AND CERAMIC MANUFACTURES.

The Juries of the Classes from XXXI. to XXXVI. will examine whether the articles exhibited show inventions or discoveries as to economy, increase or perfection of production; regularity of manufactures, combined with excellence of design; novel application of known discoveries; increased utility, combined with novelty and beauty; excellence of workmanship and quality.

In regard to the Jury of Class XXXVI., novelty of material or application, excellence of design, material, workmanship, and cheapness are to be taken into consideration.

NOTE.

In the following List of Awards it frequently happens that the same Exhibitor has been voted Awards by more than one Jury. These Duplicate Awards have been allowed to remain on the Record; but according to the decision of Her Majesty's Commissioners, and of the Council of Chairmen, only one Medal will be given to an Exhibitor, unless the Objects rewarded are exhibited in distinct Classes.

LYON PLAYFAIR,

Special Commissioner for Juries.

NOTE TO THE SECOND EDITION.

The First Edition of the Book of Awards was prepared under great pressure. The Juries terminated their labours on the 26th of June, and the Award Books had to be copied for the printer and passed through the press so as to be ready for the State Ceremony on the 11th of July. By working all through the nights for a week the Book of Awards was ready on the appointed day. It was necessary, however, to take the List of Awards as they had been prepared by the Juries, without verifying them by the Minute Books. This verification has now been made, and various Awards found in the Minute Books, but by mistake not copied into the List of Awards, have been added. Not a single instance, however, occurs of any new Award having been made.

JURY AWARDS.

MEDAL.

NATION.	No. in Catalogue.	NAME OF EXHIBITOR.	OBJECTS REWARDED AND REASONS FOR THE AWARD.
United Kingdom -	3	Aberdare Iron Company -	For model of a blast furnace, yielding an extraordinary quantity of pig iron, and for specimens illustrating the manufacture of rails.
—	18	Bell, Brothers - - -	For the production of Aluminium in large quantities, illustrated by a collection of its preparation from the ore, and its application to various useful purposes.
—	23	Bickford, Smith, and Co. -	For maintaining the excellence of the safety fuse originally introduced by them.
—	28	Birley, S. - - -	For his skilful application of a great variety of mineral substances to ornamental purposes.
—	29	Blaenavon Iron and Coal Company.	Pig and manufactured iron of excellent quality, especially for solid rolled weldless tires.
—	31	Bolckow and Vaughan - - -	For economy of production, and the development of a new district.
—	33	Bowling Iron Company -	For an instructive collection and excellence of quality.
—	40	Brown and Jeffcock - - -	For map exhibiting the out-crop of the seams of coal in South Yorkshire, illustrated by specimens and sections.
—	39	Brown, J., and Co. - - -	For large rolled armour plates.
—	48	Butterley and Co. - - -	For novelty and excellence in the working of wrought iron of large scantling, especially for the welded girder, the rolled engine beam, and the rolled deck girder.
—	58	Cheesewring Granite Company -	For successful development of the granite of the Liskeard district, and its application to a monolith, exhibited with reference to the proposed monument of the Exhibition of 1851.

* If Exhibitors accept the office of Jurors, or Associate Jurors or Experts, they cease to be competitors for prizes in the Class to which they are appointed, and these cannot be awarded either to them individually, or to the firms in which they may be partners.

NATION.	No. in Catalogue.	NAME OF EXHIBITOR.	OBJECTS REWARDED AND REASONS FOR THE AWARD.
United Kingdom -	61	Coal Owners of Northumberland and Durham.	For the valuable series of maps and sections—principally constructed by Mr. Oliver,—of the Northern coal-field, with its relations to underlying and overlying formations.
—	69	Courage, A., and Co. - -	For a collection of specimens illustrating the Belgian process of extracting zinc.
—	76	Crawshay, H., and Co. - -	In recognition of his spirited sinking of a shaft of large dimensions, and fitted with pumps of 27 inches diameter, for winning the iron ore.
—	80	Daglish, J. - - -	For application of a long-heating surface, capable of increasing the ventilating power of a colliery furnace when needed.
—	90	Dowlais Iron Company -	Rolled girders and rails, especially the girder, 15 inches deep and 30 feet long.
—	94	Eastwood and Sons - -	For good quality of the iron exhibited.
—	95	Ebbw Vale and Pontypool Companies.	For iron of very superior quality, and for a process of carburetting wrought iron scrap, whereby the phosphorus is practically got rid of.
—	100	Evans and Askin - - -	For excellence of manufacture of nickel and German silver, also of pure oxide of cobalt, first obtained by them as a commercial product.
—	101	Farnley Iron Company - -	For iron of excellent quality, especially the piece of thick plate, bent cold, and rebent at right angles.
—	106	Forster, G. B. - - -	For exhibition of the details of an excellent form of cage fitted to rolled iron guides.
—	110	Freeman, W. and J. - -	For the great and successful development of the granites of Penryn and Lamorna, and the fine polished columns and specimens exhibited.
—	116	Geological Survey of the United Kingdom.	For the highest merit in the published delineations and descriptions of the geological structure of the United Kingdom.
—	122	Governor and Company of Copper Miners.	For specimens of copper, tin plate, and iron showing skill in manufacture, and good quality.
—	123	Gowans, J. - - -	For successful application of his borer, and of galvanic blasting to quarries worked on a large scale.
—	125	Granville, Earl - - -	For good products and fine specimens of minerals representing very important workings, and for the section of which the data are given by his deep sinkings.
—	127	Greaves, J. W. - - -	For excellence of quality and skill in working, and for his slate-dressing machine.
—	129	Greenwell, G. C. - - -	For specimens and sections well illustrating the Somersetshire coal-fields and the remarkable iron ore of Westbury.
—	130	& - - -
—	148	Henderson, J. - - -	For well-executed maps on a large scale of the workings of several Cornish mines.
—	151	Hewlett, A. - - -	For an excellent section of the sinkings to this remarkable bed of cannel, and the fine specimen of the seam exhibited.
—	152	Higgs, S., and Sons - -	For plans of mines and carefully-collected series of ores and accompanying rocks of the St. Ives and St. Just districts.
—	154	Hird, Dawson, and Hardy -	For well-known excellence of quality.
—	155	Holland, S., and Co. - -	For excellence of quality and skill in working his quarries.

—	159	Howard, Honourable J. -	For illustrative collection on a practical scale of the minerals of the Forest of Dean.
—	160	Howard, Ravenhill, and Co. -	For novelty in the manufacture of bridgelinks.
—	171	Johnson, Matthey, and Company	For excellence in the manufacture of platinum, and for a splendid and instructive collection of rare metals of practical value and scientific interest.
—	189	Kirkstall Forge Company -	For iron of excellent quality.
—	201	Lilleshall Iron Company -	For cold blast-coke pig iron worked in a charcoal hearth of sufficiently good quality to make fine wire.
—	203	Lizard Serpentine Company -	For a full exhibition of Lizard serpentine, and its adaptation to various purposes, particularly a monolith obelisk, and a font.
—	204	Llangollen Slab and Slate Company.	For the extraction of the largest slab in the Exhibition, from quarries in the Upper Silurian formation.
—	207	Londonderry, Marchioness of -	For instructive model showing the arrangements of a coal-shipping harbour, and for samples of an important building stone.
—	210	Lowry, J. W. - - -	For fidelity, coupled with excellence of execution in his engraving of fossils on steel.
—	214	Macdonald, A. - - -	For the labours of his father and himself in opening out new quarries of granite in Aberdeenshire, and for the fine-polished specimens exhibited.
—	216	Margam Tin Plate Company -	For very high quality of tin plates.
—	224	Meik, T. - - -	For a well-executed model of a very complete drop for shipping coal.
—	225	Mersey Steel Iron Company -	For heavy forgings and taper-rolled iron, especially for the crank-shaft and armour plate.
—	226	Michell, R. - - -	For a model and specimens illustrative of tin smelting.
—	231	Mona Mine Company -	For copper of excellent quality, and for specimens illustrating the processes of cementation and copper smelting.
—	232	Monk Bridge Iron Company -	For iron of excellent quality.
—	236	More, Rev. T. F. -	For a model of the lead-mining district in the Lower Silurian Rocks S.W. of the Stiperstones, Shropshire.
—	245	Museum of Practical Geology -	For instructiveness of model constructed by T. B. Jordan, comprehensively showing the workings in mineral veins.
—	246	Mylne, R. - - -	For instructive map of the formations which bear on the question of the water-supply of the basins of Paris and London.
—	248	Newcastle, Duke of -	For perseverance in opening out a new coal district under very difficult conditions.
—	263	Parkside Mining Company -	For sections of the mines, beautiful specimens of hæmatite ores, and iron made from them.
—	265	Patent Plumbago Crucible Company.	For black-lead and fire-clay crucibles of good quality.
—	269	Pearce, W., Junior -	For his column and other specimens of serpentine, worked entirely by himself.
—	272	Pease, J. and J. H. -	For accurate illustrations of the method employed for lowering to the main line of rail large quantities of ironstone.
—	286	Price, Dr. D. S. -	For an instructive collection illustrating the manufacture of iron.

NATION.	No. in Catalogue.	NAME OF EXHIBITOR.	OBJECTS REWARDED AND REASONS FOR THE AWARD.
United Kingdom -	290	Quilliam, T. - - -	For examples of the little-known building stones and marbles of the Isle of Man.
—	10	Rawson, Barker and Co. -	For a collection of decopperized lead and slag lead, softened by a new process.
—	299	Rhiwbryfdir Slate Company -	For general excellence of quality and examples of remarkably perfect cleavage.
—	303	Robinson, W., and Co. -	For a collection of tin plate and galvanized sheet iron of excellent quality.
—	306	Rogers, Ebr. - - -	For his active share in developing, since 1851, the iron ores of the Brendon Hills and Exmoor, and the hæmatitic ore of Cwm Noddi.
—	311	Salt Chamber of Commerce -	For good illustration of an industry conducted on an enormous scale.
—	316	Schneider and Hannay -	For models and specimens illustrating the very large make of iron per furnace.
—	318	Scottish Ironmasters -	For a comprehensive collection of the iron ores and coal, and pig iron of Scotland.
—	322	Shelton Bar Iron Company -	For collection of iron, smelting products, and iron of good quality, and especially for the manufacture of a large plate.
—	326	Sim, W. - - -	For producing a fine obelisk of a silver grey granite from a new locality.
—	332	Smith, R., for Earl Dudley -	For a fine collection of iron of good quality.
—	344	Sunderland Local Committee -	For elaborate model of a harbour and railways adapted for shipping large quantities of coal.
—	346	Swansea Local Committee -	For an instructive collection illustrating the metallurgical products of their district.
—	350	Taylor Brothers, and Company -	For excellence in the manufacture of wrought iron.
—	364	Thompson, Hatton, and Co. -	For tin plate of excellent quality.
—	378	Turner, Cassons, and Co. -	For excellence of quality in their produce.
—	384	Vint, G., and Brothers -	For their obelisk of a new and beautiful variety of coal measure sandstone.
—	383	Vigra and Clogau Copper Mining Company.	For the first successful result in Britain, chiefly due to their agent, John Parry, of the working of a gold-bearing vein.
—	394	Weardale Iron Company -	For excellent quality of pig iron, especially for the description known as spiegel iron.
—	395	Welsh Slate Company -	For the successful extraction of slates of superior quality, and very large slabs of the Lower Silurian rocks of North Wales.
—	410	Wimshurst's Patent Metal Foil Company.	For the sheet of cut lead exhibited.
—	412	Wombwell Main Coal Company	For specimens of coal and of the newly discovered Lincolnshire iron ore, the latter arranged so as to represent the natural strata.
—	425	Woodhouse and Jeffcock -	For instructiveness of model showing the long-wall mode of working as practised at Shipley.
—	444	Wright, S. - - -	For the good quality of green slate from environs of Borrowdale.
—	431	Ystalyfera Iron Company -	For economy of production of anthracite iron and tin plate, illustrated by a good collection of products.
Canada - -	195	Billings, E., of the Geological Survey.	For his published decades on Canadian fossils and his valuable general contributions to palæontology.

CLASS I.—Mining, Quarrying, Metallurgy, and Mineral Products.

Canada - -	14	English and Canadian Mining Company.	For the skill and perseverance with which they have opened their ground, and the discovery of deposits conformable with the stratification.
—	7	Foley and Co. - - -	For plans of mines, ores, and lead, smelted in the colony.
—	196	Hunt, J. Sterry, of Geological Survey.	For the instructively described series of the crystalline rocks of Canada, and his various published contributions to geological chemistry.
—	1	Larue and Co. - - -	For excellent cast iron railway wheels made from bog iron ore, which have run 150,000 miles.
—	8	Montreal Mining Company -	For interesting series of copper ores, accompanied by plans and sections of the workings.
—	41	Officers of the Geological Survey of Canada.	For an admirably prepared collection of specimens, illustrating the mineral resources of the province.
—	36	Taylor, A. - - -	For good specimens of crude and prepared gypsum, with plans and section of the gypsum mines.
—	9	West Canada Mining Company -	For specimens and plans illustrating a well worked copper mine.
—	23	Williams, for Canadian Oil Company.	For introducing an important industry by sinking artesian wells in the Devonian Strata for petroleum.
India - -	38	Calcutta Local Committee -	For interesting collection of works executed in soapstone.
—	3	East India Iron Company -	For an interesting and instructive collection of specimens illustrating the production of iron and steel in Madras.
—	26	Hunter, Dr. - - -	For a carefully collected series of pottery clays and their manufactured products.
—	1	Martin, R. M. - - -	For his illustration of the Hydrographical basins of India.
—	17 & 40	Oldham, Professor - - -	For specimens, with the analyses, of a series of coals from many localities in India, and for the elaborate work of the geological survey conducted by him.
—	23	Rajah of Vizianagarum -	For the interest attaching to his graphite found in a new locality.
—	423	Surveyor-General of India -	For the admirably-executed maps of a part of the Himalaya by the Topographical Survey now in progress.
—	2	Watson, Dr. Forbes - - -	For an extensive collection of soils and the scientific labour bestowed on the analysis.
Jamaica - -	5	Barrett, L. - - -	For geological maps and sections by himself and Mr. Sawkins, with specimens of rocks and ores.
Natal - -	8	Sutherland, Dr. - - -	For his new topographical map of the colony.
New Brunswick -	1	Commissioners of New Brunswick.	For general collection of rocks and minerals of the colony.
Newfoundland -	1	Newfoundland Government -	For a general collection of rocks and minerals of the island.
New South Wales -	309	Australian Agricultural Company	For fine specimens of good coal, representing their workings on an extensive scale.
—	288	Dawson, A. - - -	For a collection illustrating the various building stones of the colony.

New South Wales -	296 & 316	Keene, W. - - -	For his persevering labour in making the collection of the coal, rocks and fossils of several localities, illustrated by a map and section.
—	420	Low, J. C. - - -	For his excellent model, explanatory of the processes of working stream gold.
—	444	MacLean (Surveyor General) -	For his new map of the colony and the outlines thereon, of its general gold fields.
—	312	} Royal Mint - - -	For admirably arranged and instructive series of samples of gold and of the beds passed through in the sinkings.
—	313
—	314
New Zealand -	1	Bank of New Zealand -	For valuable series of the varieties of gold from the Otago fields.
—	5	Heaphy, C. - - -	For his collections, and geological map of Auckland, and his drawings of volcanic rocks and hot springs.
—	1	Holmes, M. - - -	For interesting collection of gold specimens and views of local scenery.
—	2	Nelson Government -	For their collection, and the production of the geological map, by Mr. Hochstetter.
Nova Scotia -	4	Honeyman, Rev. -	For a large collection of specimens illustrating the geology of the colony.
—	3	Howe, Prof. - - -	For collection arranged by him, illustrative of the rocks and minerals of the province.
—	1	Provincial Government -	For their large and instructive collection, illustrating the occurrence of gold.
—	2	Scott, J. - - -	For column of coal, showing the entire height of the seam, 34 feet;—one of the thickest known beds in the world.
South Australia -	49	Burra Burra Mining Company -	For fine instructive series of their copper ores.
—	58	Kapunda Mining Company -	For an instructive collection of copper ores, smelting products, and copper.
—	53	Wallaroo Mining Company -	For specimens of copper ore representing a new and important district.
—	50	Wheal Ellen Mining Company -	For fine specimens of lead ores, and lead smelted in the colony.
Tasmania -	123 to 177	Calder, J. E. - - -	For an instructive series of rocks, building stones, and fossils of the colony.
—	194 to 212	Commissioners of Tasmania -	For series of specimens, especially for those of coal and marble.
—	410 to 436	Gould, C. - - -	For collections, and his arduous labours in developing the geological structure of Tasmania.
—	509 to 541	Milligan, J. - - -	For his collections, and his merit as a geological pioneer in Tasmania.
Trinidad -	—	Wall, G. P. - - -	For the geological map and descriptions of Trinidad executed by himself and Mr. Sawkins.
Vancouver -	1	Executive Committee -	For their valuable collection illustrating the mineral wealth of the colony.
Victoria -	3	Bank of Australasia -	For extensive and interesting series of specimens of gold.
—	5	Bank of New South Wales -	For fine specimens of gold in the matrix.
—	17	Black Hill Mining Company -	For quartzose stuff of low produce, skilfull and successfully worked.
—	14	Burkitt, A. H. -	For his neat and instructive analysis of auriferous drift.
—	23	Clark and Sons -	For well selected and fine specimens illustrating the produce of a well worked mine.

Victoria	30	Clunes Mining Company	For auriferous vein stuff, illustrating the produce of their extensive workings.
—	4	Colonial Bank of Australasia	For exhibition of different varieties of gold, chiefly in drift.
—	236	Commissioners of Victoria Exhibition.	For the well mounted stamps sent by them to illustrate the extraction of gold by stamping and amalgamation.
—	268	Daintree, R.	For photographs of rocks, fossils, and scenery illustrative of Victorian geology.
—	485	Davidson, R.	For detailed survey on a very large scale of one of the richest gold fields of the colony.
—	63	Knight, J. G.	For the pyramid instructively representing the total quantity of gold raised in Victoria, and for the specimens of the building stones of the colony, illustrated by a treatise.
—	486	McCoy, Prof. Fredk.	For collection of fossils, illustrating the order of the sedimentary rocks, and for good engraved plates of fossils.
—	476	Rowe, G.	For faithful and beautiful delineation of the country, workings, and other relations of the gold fields.
—	93	Selwyn, A.	For the progress of his Survey, alike important to the colony and to all geologists.
—	92	Smyth, Brough	For the topographical delineation of various mining districts with the lines of the gold bearing veins and runs.
—	95	Turner, W. J.	For an extensive exhibition of precious stones of the colony, gold, tin, and other minerals.
—	97	Victoria Government	For the well arranged gold statistics of the colony and their valuable exhibition of gold specimens.
—	98	Victoria Kaolin Company	For enterprise in the discovery and development of the first kaolin found in the colony.
Austria	15	Haidinger, W.C., I. R. Geological Institution, Vienna.	As the founder and director of the Survey, with honorable mention to his coadjutors.
—	22*	Jenbach, Iron Administration at	For steel of excellent quality.
—	23	Joachimsthal, I. R. Office of Mines at.	For novelty in the practical manufacture of uranium.
—	30	Laczay, Szabó Charles	For specimens of a newly discovered tertiary Burrstone and its application to millstones.
—	32	Leoben, the Chamber of Commerce, 6 Medals, viz.:
		1. Drasche H.	For skill in working a seam of coal of great thickness, and excellence of maps exhibited.
		2. Eisenerz Imperial Royal Direction.	For instructive collections, drawings of furnaces, and mining plans.
		3. Count Henckel	For axles, railway wheels, and tyres of good quality.
		4. Neuberg Administration	For iron of excellent quality, and instructive drawings of furnaces and rolling mill.
		5. Radmeister Association	For excellent white iron, good collections, and useful drawings.
		6. Schwarzenberg, Prince Adolphus.	For natural steel of excellent quality, and good steel iron.

Austria - -	35	Mayr, F. - - -	For iron and steel of excellent quality, and particularly for the successful introduction of Siemen's gas furnace, of which drawings are given.
—	37	Meran, Count - - -	For sheet bar iron and steel of excellent quality, made with inferior lignite.
—	1172	Military Geographical Institute -	For the continuation of the great geographical works and models of which a part was exhibited in 1851.
—	14	Minister of Finances - -	For interesting maps of workings, and full series of specimens illustrating the various salt mines of the Austrian empire.
—	15	Officers of Geological Survey, I.R. Geological Institution, Vienna.	For their valuable and elaborate geological maps of the Austrian empire.
—	43	Pillersee, I. R. Mining Smelting, and Hammer Works at.	A collective medal for steel of excellent quality.
—	44	Prague Company of Iron Industry	For excellence of castings in iron, and for an instructive collection of ores and of smelting and manufacturing products.
—	46	Przibram, I.R. Mining Office -	For fine examples of vein specimens, well executed map and model, and drawings of an effective continuous jigging machine.
—	51	Rauscher and Co. - - -	For extraordinary economy of fuel, six-tenths only by weight being used to produce pig iron, probably the greatest economy hitherto obtained.
—	60	Schemnitz, I. R. Administration of Mines, Forest, and Estates at.	For excellence of steel and iron, and for model of new and important dressing apparatus.
—	61	Schwarzenberg, Prince John Adolphus.	For superior quality of graphite, worked on a large scale, and prepared by good arrangements for washing and sorting.
—	1188	Simony, Frederic - - -	For his large and instructive pictorial illustration of glacier action.
—	65	States Railway Company -	For the production of iron and steel of excellent quality. Copper and other materials for railway purposes.
—	66	Styrian Patent Steel Works Co.	For steel of well-known excellence of quality.
—	69	Thror and Co. - - -	For the discovery of tertiary burrstone near Tokay, apparently rivalling that of France in its application to millstones.
—	71	Töpper, A. - - -	For sheet iron of the highest repute and of superior manufacture.
—	73	Upper Hungarian Forest and Mine Company (Waldbürger Gewerkschaft).	For copper of excellent quality, and for the production of quicksilver from Fahl-erz.
—	15	I. R. Geological Institution, Vienna.	For the complete collection and statistics of the fossil fuels of the Austrian empire.
—	1238	Wöllersdorf Company - -	For good quality of tin plate stamped into difficult forms.
Bavaria - -	2146	Bergwerks und Salinen Staat's Direction.	For a geological map of the Bavarian Alps and adjacent low country.
—	146	Solenhofen Joint Stock Company.	For well known quality and unusual size of lithographic stone.
—	233	Topographical Bureau at Munich	For the admirable detail of the topographical map of Bavaria.
Belgium - -	2	Amand, E. - - -	For excellence of quality of charcoal iron especially used for gun barrels.
—	214	Berard - - -	For the important results of his coal washing machine, and its new modification for metallic ores, as exhibited by Cail, Halot, & Co.

Belgium - - -	25	Bleyberg, Société Anonyme du -	For specimens of lead ores, lead and silver, representing a most extensive undertaking successfully conducted through great engineering difficulties.
— - -	20	Châtelineau, Société Anonyme de.	For well executed plan and elevation of the apparatus employed at a large Belgian colliery for pumping, for raising the coal, and lifting the men by a fahrkunst .
— - -	307	Chaudron, J. - - -	For improvements added to Kindt's method of boring shafts in watery ground without pumping.
— - -	8	Dassonville de St. Hubert -	For a new and successful application of a chert breccia to the purposes of grinding.
— - -	794	Delloye-Matthieu - -	For rolled sheet iron with remarkably fine surface.
— - -	823	Forges et Laminoirs de L'Heure Société des.	For railway axles of excellent quality, especially for the cold twisted axle.
— - -	818	Forges de la Providence, Société Anonyme des.	For the manufacture of difficult pieces of wrought iron, especially for the girder, 16 inches deep and 8 inches long, and for a forged wheel.
— - -	313	Guibal, T. - - -	For a simple and effective ventilator for collieries, capable of being regulated according to requirements.
— - -	824	Laminoirs de Haut Prè, Société des.	For rolled sheet iron with remarkably fine surface.
— - -	1	Ministry of Public Works -	For a full and illustrative collection, collected and arranged by M. J. Van Scherpenzeel Thim, in accordance with the geological map of M. Dumont.
— - -	17	Nouvelle-Montagne, Société Anonyme de la.	For an instructive series of ores, and especially for the dressing of ores by a blast apparatus, and for the Cadmium.
— - -	814	Raikem-Verdbois - -	For rolled sheet iron with remarkably fine surface.
— - -	815	Remacle, J. & Perard - -	For rolled sheet iron with remarkably fine surface.
— - -	18	Rocheux et d'Oneux, Société Anonyme de.	For specimens of ores representing a new discovery, and large production of iron pyrites.
— - -	33	Sacqueleu, F. - - -	For a good collection of marbles of various kinds, sold at very low prices.
— - -	34	Tacquenier, Bros. - -	For large and successful working under difficult conditions.
Denmark - - -	230	Royal Ordnance Survey -	For minutely detailed contour maps, well suited to illustrate physical geography and geology.
France - - -	3602	Algeria, Collective Exhibition -	For a highly interesting collection of the mineral products of Africa (41 exhibitors).
— - -	59	Allard, Son, and Co. - -	For having discovered and quarried on a great scale the fine millstone of Dordogne.
— - -	6	Bonnor, Degrand and Co. -	For iron wire rolled to a very fine gauge.
— - -	84	Chalain, E. - - -	For the recent discovery and regular working on a great scale of the fine slates of the department of the Ille et Vilaine.
— - -	48	Chapuis, Bros. - - -	For excellence in the manufacture of platinum, and for interesting collection of rare metals.
— - -	17	Committee of the Loire -	For instructive series of specimens of the most productive of the French coal fields.
